

Your Honeymoon

BAHAMAS

TOTALLY TROPICAL

Honeymoon hotspot Coral Sands Hotel, famed for its secluded pink beach, has a new honeymoon package offering romantic accommodation, utmost privacy and personalised care to sun worshipping newlyweds. Spend your days lounging by turquoise waters or sipping cocktails by the freshwater lagoon-style pool. Hop on a bike to colourful Dunmore Town or choose snorkelling, bone fishing or diving. Caribbean heaven! See Coralsands.com

It's a gift
Want to avoid unwanted gifts? Check out their new honeymoon gifting service that lets friends and family contribute to your wedding abroad or trip of a lifetime. Write your own welcome message to greet guests that visit your online site and even create inserts that can be printed off and sent with invites or via email. Guests can make contributions online, over the phone or by post.

A REAL GEM

Fashionistas will adore Milan's Bulgari hotel, owned by the ultra luxurious jewellery house. This super chic city retreat features a stunning interior with Italian furniture, luxurious detailing and attentive service. Best of all there's a private botanical garden – an oasis of calm in the city – where you'll find models, photographers and Milan's beautiful people sipping cocktails. – Just what you need after a hard day's honeymooning. Rooms from €560, bulgarihotels.com

CHINA

Shanghai surprise

City slickers will thrill at Shanghai's sheer vibrancy. Get the most from this pulsating metropolis by checking in to the brand new Hyatt on the Bund. Located on Shanghai's most famous thoroughfare, the hotel is angled so that all rooms benefit from spectacular views of the city. The vibrant, contemporary interior is utterly luxurious while the Bund's drinking and dining destination (spread over 4 floors) offers everything from Chinese cuisine to a tearoom to European cooking! See hyatt.com.

ITALY

Mountain High

La Residencia, Mallorca's most celebrated hotel, has taken to new heights with the addition of eight new mountain suites. The Tramuntana suites, named after the mountain range, nestle into the mountainside and are furnished in traditional Mallorcan style with four-poster beds, lounge areas and private tiled terraces with magnificent vistas. See hotel-laresidencia.com; T: +44 207 960 0500.

MALLORCA

Ocean view room

With 1200 islands scattered across the Indian Ocean, The Maldives boast powdery white sands and the calmest clearest waters, ringed by coral reefs. Famed for some of the finest snorkelling and diving in the world you'll be stunned by the kaleidoscopic sea life. Head for the 6-star Hilton Maldives Resort & Spa and you'll find Ithaa, their incredible underwater restaurant that allows you enjoy the submarine world without getting wet. Spread across two islands the resort offers four other restaurants, a choice of water villas and a glass-floored spa. This may just be paradise on earth. Book with escape2.ie or classicresorts.ie.

MALDIVES